Notice of Cross-Appeal to the Arizona Court of Appeals

 This form must be filed in the Superior Court. *****

Use this form to cross-appeal a superior court ruling. A cross-appeal is when a party challenges a ruling after the other party has already appealed it or another ruling in the case. You do not have to file a cross-appeal to respond to an appeal by the other party.

File this form in the superior court, give a copy of the completed form to every other party, and include a Certificate of Service when you file it. You can get a Certificate of Service from the superior court.

For more information, see Arizona Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure 8 and 9.

Notice of Cross-Appeal

1. Name of cross-appealing party: _____
2. Date(s) of ruling(s) being cross-appealed: _____
3. Briefly describe the ruling(s) being cross-appealed. (Attach additional pages, if necessary, up to a total of 5 pages. Do not use this document to argue why you believe the superior court is wrong. You will have a chance to explain that in your cross-appeal opening brief. The Court of Appeals will let you know when the cross-appeal opening brief is due.)
